

AmCham Elects Bijan Eghbal (Partner, DLA Piper) as President

Paris, June 23, 2020 - At the end of its Annual General Meeting, AmCham announced

- the election of Bijan EGHBAL (Partner, DLA Piper) as President for a non-renewable two-year term,
- the arrival of a new member on its Executive Committee:
 - o Nadine STUTTER-PREVOT, SVP Public Affairs, Sodexo

The Board of Directors elected Bijan Eghbal as President of AmCham France. Bijan Eghbal has been involved with AmCham for several years, notably as Secretary General since 2018, and has played an active role in the transformation of the association. He replaces Stéphanie Barreau, Managing Director 3M West Mediterranean Region & President 3M France, who served as President of AmCham from April 2018 to June 2020.

Bijan Eghbal, Partner DLA Piper, President AmCham France: “I am very pleased and honored to have been elected at the head of AmCham. The unprecedented crisis that we are going through today is a remarkable opportunity for AmCham and its members to positively and actively contribute to the growth and development of the country, in order to rediscover together a path for sustainable and responsible growth. In this context, AmCham must more than ever bring its proposals forward in the public debate. With our 250 members, I will bolster the momentum developed over the past few years to continue making AmCham shine as a key organisation in the transatlantic relationship. I would like to pay tribute to the relentless work and commitment of Stéphanie Barreau in making AmCham a key player in the public debate.”

The newly elected Executive Committee now consists of:

- Bijan EGHBAL, President, AmCham France
- Nadine STUTTER-PREVOT, Secretary, AmCham France
- Mathieu GELIS, Treasurer, AmCham France
- Marc-André KAMEL, Vice-President, AmCham France
- Christopher KRAMME, Vice-President, AmCham France
- Jason McDONALD, Vice-President, AmCham France

As a reminder, members of the Board of Directors are elected for a renewable 3-year term and can benefit from a renewable 3-year extension of term if they join the Executive Committee.

Jérémie Gallon stepped down as Managing Director on April 30, 2020.

About AmCham France:

AmCham represents companies committed to the transatlantic relationship. Founded in 1894 to promote economic exchanges between France and the United States, AmCham now brings together 250 French, American and European companies of all sizes and from all sectors of the economy. Independent of any government, AmCham helps bring new ideas to the public debate, especially to strengthen France's attractiveness.

In this perspective, AmCham includes numerous working groups that develop recommendations in the form of white papers and policy papers. As a platform for high-level meetings, AmCham regularly brings together business leaders, political leaders, and academic leaders. These meetings give rise to in-depth debates and exchanges on economic, social, and geopolitical issues relating to the evolution of the transatlantic relationship. AmCham is committed to societal issues that are at the heart of its members' activities. Thus, AmCham conducts various projects around diversity, inclusion but also innovation.
